FAQ

How do I search for teams playing in the Softball and Baseball World Series?

In the GameChanger App or on the web, type LLSWS for softball and LLBWS for baseball into the search bar and the teams associated with the 2024 tournament will appear. Then, follow steps 3 and 4 above to join as a fan and get team updates.

How do I see the cumulative stats for an athlete?

To see cumulative stats for an athlete, follow these steps in the GameChanger App:

1. Select the team.
2. Once in the team, click on the Team Tab
3. Select a player.
4. Choose 'Stats.'

Do I have to upgrade to a paid account to get access?

As part of our partnership with Little League International, all features are free to access. We just ask that you please provide attribution to 'GameChanger' when publishing scores and stats, by mentioning 'Source: GameChanger' in your publications. If you are unable to access stats or other features, please email diamond@gc.com.

Can I access box scores, play-by-plays, and cumulative stats from the web?

No, box scores, play-by-plays, and cumulative team stats are only available in the app, but leaderboards and cumulative player stats are available on the web.

Is LLWS available on GameChanger Classic?

No, we have moved to the new GameChanger App. Download the GameChanger App here.

Who should I attribute when publishing scores and stats?
